

Tom Harari

Tom's Life motto:
Still waters run deep

First Sergeant Tom Harari, born in 2002, lives in Kibbutz Kfar Rupin in the Valley of the Springs area.

Tom served in the Golani Brigade, 13th Battalion and was a platoon commander and then a platoon sergeant.

Tom fought in the events of October 7, and the outpost that Tom commanded, thanks to his exemplary performance, did not fall into the hands of Hamas. Tom continued to fight inside the Gaza Strip until Jan 1st when he was shot in the leg by IDF fire during an operational activity in Al Burij.

Tom was evacuated to Ichilov Hospital and then transferred to Sheba Hospital for rehabilitation lasting about a month and a half.

Today Tom continues a rehabilitation process and tells his courageous story throughout the country.
