

“Iron Swords”

Nitzan Levi

Nitzan's Life motto:

Life is a journey, start with a small step and in the end you will climb mountains.

Nitzan Levy, born in 1994, married to Sivan and father of two.

An officer in the armoured corps, during his mandatory army service Nitzan served in the 7th Brigade, and later in the position of squad commander. Nitzan enjoyed doing the training course very much, and also fought in many divisions (all except Lebanon). Nitzan was released from mandatory service in 2021 and was immediately called up to the reserves. In the reserves, Nitzan serves as a deputy company commander in the 4th Brigade on Merkava 4 tanks and is really enjoys his work there. He began fighting on October 7th alongside paratroopers and after 3 and a half months of battle Nitzan was seriously wounded by RPG fire on his tank. A good friend was killed and the others on his team were all seriously injured.

There after Nitzan got to know the world of hospitals- he was the ICU of Soroka Hospital for 5 and a half months and then was moved to rehabilitation at Ichilov Hospital. His was a difficult and complex experience in all respects: personal, marital and family. He is very grateful that he has a superhero wife who holds everything together while he heals. Today he is learning to live with his injuries and trying to be positive and help those around him as much as possible.

